Re: United States v. Hector Cartagena, 11-cr-267 (DAB) (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Battis:

We represent defendant Hector Cartagena in the above matter. As we noted on the record before Your Honor on April 4, 2011, Mr. Cartagena was arrested on a complaint bearing the name Hector Cartagena and has been charged in an information bearing that same name. For reasons not clear to us, but possibly relating to a prior arrest, Mr. Cartagena is being detained at the Metropolitan Correctional Center under the name "Luis Gomez Reyes," inmate number 64445-054.

Being detained under the incorrect name is causing our client certain administrative problems, including (among other things) complicating his ability to receive visits from friends and family. We have asked the United States Marshals and the Bureau of Prisons for their assistance, and they have directed us to the Court. Accordingly, we respectfully request that Your Honor direct the Bureau of Prisons to change the name Mr. Cartagena is being detained under from "Luis Gomez Reyes" to "Hector Cartagena." We also ask that you direct the Bureau of Prisons to inform the United States Marshals Service of this change.

We have attached documentation to this letter verifying Mr. Cartagena's real name.

Respectfully,

Brendan F. Quigley
